

3 DAYS IN ROME

YOUR ROMAN HOLIDAY

OF THE ETERNAL CITY....

Rome is the capital of Italy and the most important and beautiful city of the country! Layers and layers of history coupled with mind blowing architecture and delicious food makes Rome a destination for everyone, all year round.

However, it can be overwhelming to plan a trip to Rome especially for a first time visitor. But that's why I got you covered!

Enjoy this itinerary of "3 DAYS IN ROME" with travel tips, personal recommendations and places to eat/stay.

I gaurantee you, this will be your trip of a lifetime!

DAY 1:

The Colosseum: Start your first day with the Colosseum. No one can visit Rome and not see this fascinating piece of history! Take a walk around the amphitheater and later visit inside with a licensed guide.

The Roman Forum: A stone's throw away from the Colosseum is the Roman Forum- a collection of ruins that was once the centre stage of the politics of the Roman Empire. If you want to understand Rome a little deeper, I suggest you make a stop here.

Campo de' Fiori: Translated as "Field of Flowers", Campo de' Fiori is the place to people watch and relax. Since you've spent more than half the day among ruins, relax now. Admire the orange colored alleys of Rome, don't do too much. Eat at a cozy restaurant.

DAY 2:

The Vatican: Start your second day early with The Vatican. It takes almost half a day to see (or maybe more depending on your pace), so plan accordingly. Book your tickets in advance from the official Vatican website (https://biglietteriamusei.vatican.va). Take a private tour for the best experience.

Trastevere: After the Vatican, make your way to the picturesque neighborhood of Trastevere and admire its street art, ivy clad homes and buzzing Bars. Be prepared to take a million photos for Instagram.

Testaccio: If you have energy left, head to the neighborhood of Testaccio (very close to Trastevere) to enjoy a coffee/drink at a tram coverted to a coffee kiosk and then walk to marvel at a 2000 year old thousand Pyramid in the city!

DAY 3:

Spanish Steps: Your last day in Rome should be a mix of fun and history. Head to the baroque styled steps in the heart of the city and have a coffee or gelato here. Ignore the selfie stick sellers, they are hundreds of them here.

Trevi Fountain: Close to Spanish Steps, is the most popular sight in Rome- La Fontana di Trevi! Make sure to go there early morning as it is packed with tourists from 8 in the morning to 11 in the night.

The Pantheon: After the Trevi, make your way to see this architectural marvel! The Pantheon is a Roman temple where the artist Raphael is buried, It is Rome's most visited places and stunning inside out,
